Funding Announcements*

Updated 2/11/2009

The following is a list of funding announcements by NCUA and its Partner organizations. Contact the sponsoring organization directly with questions. (Refer to the Partner Profiles section of this website for detailed information on individual Partners).

If you would like to share information regarding funding opportunities available through your government agency or foundation, email the NCUA staff at:

TheResource@ncua.gov.

 Announcements are listed according to the application deadline unless otherwise noted.

March 2009

25 Assets for Independence (AFI) Grant Program

Type of financing available: Grant

Description: AFI provides five-year grants to organizations and agencies that enable low-income individuals and families to achieve economic self-sufficiency by accumulating economic assets. Grantees provide financial literacy training to participants and help them save earned income in special matched bank accounts called Individual Development Accounts (IDAs). IDAs enable low-income and low-wealth families to accumulate savings for long-term assets such as a home, a business, or higher education and training. Eligible grantees include community-based nonprofits and State, local, and Tribal government agencies and others, such as community development financial institutions and credit unions.
